

School of Social Work
Assistant Professors (Tenure Track)

The School of Social Work (UBC-Vancouver) seeks to fill two full-time, tenure-track Assistant Professor positions, with anticipated start date of January 1, 2017, and invites applications from those with interests in health, mental health, child welfare, and inter-professional education and collaboration. Major selection criteria include demonstrated ability and clear promise of excellence in research and scholarly activities; demonstrated ability and interest in high quality, innovative teaching; and experience in establishing effective relationships with the practice community. A Master's degree in Social Work and PhD in either Social Work or related discipline are required. In addition, candidates are required to have a strong commitment to our School's vision of social justice and ethics of social care, expertise in health, mental health or child welfare, and at least three years post-MSW (or post-BSW) direct practice with individuals, families, groups and/or community. The successful candidate for each position will be expected to maintain an active program of research, teaching, service and student supervision at the graduate (MSW, PhD) and undergraduate (BSW) levels. The School is a member of the Canadian Association for Social Work Education (CASWE). Both the BSW and MSW programs are fully accredited by the Board of Accreditation of CASWE. Please check the School's web page for updates and further information: www.socialwork.ubc.ca.

Applications are to be submitted online by August 10, 2016 through the UBC Faculty Careers website at: www.facultycareers.ubc.ca/23669. Applicants should be prepared to upload the following documents in the order listed: a letter of application, curriculum vitae, statement of research and teaching philosophies, and evidence of teaching effectiveness. In addition, applicants should arrange to have three confidential letters of reference sent to sowk.dir@ubc.ca by the same deadline.

Enquiries may be directed to: Dr. Miu Chung Yan, Acting Director, School of Social Work, University of British Columbia, 2080 West Mall, Vancouver, BC V6T 1Z2 Email: sowk.dir@ubc.ca

These positions are subject to final budgetary approval. Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

UBC hires on the basis of merit and is committed to employment equity and diversity within its community. We especially welcome applications from members of visible minority groups, women, Aboriginal persons, persons with disabilities, persons of minority sexual orientations and gender identities, and others with the skills and knowledge to engage productively with diverse communities. All qualified persons are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority.

Review of applications will begin soon after August 10, 2016, and will continue until the positions are filled.
