The UBC School of Social Work recognizes May 5 as a day to remember missing and murdered Indigenous women and girls. We challenge you to strengthen the call for concrete actions to end the genocide of Indigenous women and girls.

Special acknowledgement of Métis artist Jaime Black for her REDress Project which inspired us (<https://humanrights.ca/story/five-women-all-canadians-should-know>) and of those who shared their stories in the National Inquiry (<https://www.mmiwg-ffada.ca>)
