

Student Research Assistant Position

I am seeking an undergraduate student to join me as a Research Assistant (RA) on a project exploring “the impact of family separation on the psychosocial and mental well-being of elderly refugees.”

Project Duration: 3–6 months (depending on performance and availability of work)

Start Date: July 1, 2025, or earlier

Workload: 10 hours per week

Location: Flexible (on-campus and/or hybrid)

Hourly Wage: $22.44/hr

Qualifications and Skills:

- Interest in and knowledge of immigrant and refugee health, particularly mental health
- Ability to schedule and attend bi-weekly meetings with the supervisor
- Willingness to assist with a systematic or scoping review and contribute to research report writing
- Previous research experience is preferred but not required

Eligibility:

Applicants must be enrolled in UBC's Faculty of Arts and entering their second year or higher.

Please submit a single PDF file that includes:

- A one-page statement of interest
- Your current CV
- Names and email addresses of two referees

Send your application to Dr. Karun Karki at karun.karki@ubc.ca

Note: The position will remain open until filled.